

I am an A.R.R.L. member and oppose the proposed changes.

I feel that the CW and digital modes were greatly overlooked. CW is alive and well! Some of us encourage No-Code operators to learn code in an effort to keep Amateur Radio the fantastic hobby that is it.

If the FCC doesn't want to control the spectrum, then more than a handful of Amateurs need to have a say in how our spectrum is allocated..